DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-4 and 19, drawn to a method of liquid molding, classified in class 264, subclass 510.
  - II. Claims 5-12 and 17-18, drawn to a mold, classified in class 249, subclass 105.
  - III. Claims 13-16, drawn to a venting insert, classified in class 425, subclass 326.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the mold as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as, polymer reaction injection molding without the use of dry fiber plies.
3. Inventions Group II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as evidenced by claim 13. The subcombination has separate utility such as an insert in a metallic reaction injection mold.

Art Unit: 1732

4. Inventions Group I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process, such as polymer reaction injection molding without the use of a dry fiber sheet.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
